I. INTRODUCTION

The Complainant was the Republican nominee for the U.S. Representative from the 5th District of Massachusetts in the 2004 general election. Evidently unhappy with the lack of any direct financial support for his campaign by the Respondent, which is the state committee of the Republican Party of Massachusetts, he filed this Complaint. He alleges, in essence, that the Respondent's failure to make direct campaign contributions to his campaign or other Federal candidates' campaigns, and its alleged diversion of more than $3 million to non-federal purposes, violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("Act"). He also appears to allege that more than $800,000 of Respondent's disbursements were not itemized, but should have been. The former contentions have no merit as a matter of law, and the latter appears to have no merit as a matter of fact. Therefore, we recommend that the Commission find no reason to believe that Respondent or its treasurer violated any provision of the Act, and close the file.

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Massachusetts Republican State Congressional Committee's ("Committee") 2003 Amended Year-End report indicates that the Committee had total receipts that year of $1,591,781.27 and total disbursements of $1,189,530.60, of which all were in the category of "Federal Disbursements." Attachment 3. The Committee's 2004 Amended Year-End disclosure report indicates that the Committee had total receipts of $2,383,962.32 and total disbursements of $2,771,759.54, of which all were in the category of "Federal Disbursements." Attachment 4. Out of the total disbursements of more than $3.6 million in the 2003-2004 election cycle, the Committee reported making only one contribution to a Federal candidate in the entire cycle. That in-kind contribution, in the amount of $385.00 was made to Stephen O'Malley, Jr., a Republican Congressional candidate in the 6th District of Massachusetts on January 22, 2004. Attachment 1.

Complainant alleges that the Federal contributions received by the Committee are "trust-fund assets that belong, in a beneficial sense to the voters of Massachusetts and that are supposed to be used by various interested parties ... to inform these voters about Federal electioneering in Massachusetts.” Complainant further asserts that the Committee’s contribution of such a tiny proportion of its total disbursements to Federal candidates/committees and other political committees during the 2003-2004 election cycle is, under his “trust fund” theory, prima facie evidence of its violation of the Act. Instead of spending the money for Federal purposes as it was required to, he alleges that the Committee improperly diverted $3,000,000 intended for use in Federal campaigns to use in state, local and municipal campaign activity.

The response first disputes the Committee’s actual name and states “there is no such entity as the Massachusetts Republican State Congressional Committee.”¹ Further, the response asserts that the Committee exists on a state and federal level for fundraising purposes and allocations of funds are either regulated by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts or the Federal Election Commission; the Complainant is mistaken in his premise that there is a specialized “trust fund” for candidates for the United States Congress when in fact it is a general federal account that can be used for any or all of the proper purposes of federal funds; and the Complainant has not identified any purposes for which the funds were improperly used.

There are no provisions of the Act or regulations that support the Complainant’s “trust fund” theory. The Act does not require a state party committee to support a specific candidate’s campaign efforts with its receipts. Indeed, while the Act places considerable restrictions on the spending of money from a state party committee's Levin and non-Federal accounts, see generally 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(b) and (c), it places no restrictions whatsoever, on the purposes for which a state party committee's Federal funds, placed in its Federal account, may be spent – and it is the latter that is at issue here. The “Federal” in the term “Federal funds” means that the funds have been raised and reported in compliance with the limitations, prohibitions and reporting requirements of the Act, see 11 C.F.R. § 300.2(g), not that the funds must be spent in support of Federal candidates.

Lastly, Complainant asserts that “the noted financial disclosures indicate that $878,674.52 of the $3,674,722.16 was distributed without proper documentation during the 1/1/03-10/13/04 inclusive time period [see lines 21-31 on Page 2 of the related FEC Form 3X filings]”. Complainant does not explain the way in which he arrived at this figure, and it is not exactly clear what he means. Giving the complaint a very liberal reading, we assume that Complainant is alleging that the Committee failed to properly itemize $878,000 in disbursements that should have been itemized in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434. State party committees are only required to itemize disbursements if a disbursement exceeds $200 in a given calendar year for a person. See 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5); 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.10, 104.3(b)(3)(i). In addition, state party committees are required to state a purpose for each itemized disbursement. 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(3)(i)(A). We have reviewed the Committee's reports for the years 2003-2004 to ascertain the difference between the total disbursements made by the Committee versus the total itemized disbursements.

In total, the Committee had $3,406.55 in unitemized disbursements for the year 2003, and $2,341.78 in unitemized disbursements for the year 2004. Complainant has not provided sufficient information to support its allegation on this point. Our review did not reveal that the collective total of $5,748.33 ($3,406.55 + $2,341.78) was required to be itemized.

For the reasons herein, we recommend that the Commission find no reason to believe that the Massachusetts Republican State Congressional Committee and Brent Andersen, in his official capacity as treasurer, violated any provision of the Act, approve the appropriate letters and close the file.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Find no reason to believe that Massachusetts Republican State Congressional Committee and Brent Andersen, in his official capacity as treasurer, violated the Act;
2. Approve the appropriate letters; and
3. Close the file.
